Editor's Afterword: What is the azbil report?

As an important tool for the azbil Group in communicating with stakeholders, the azbil report combines the Group's annual and CSR reports into a single volume to enable deeper understanding of its business activities.

We edit the report to provide readers with an easy-to-understand overview of our approach to the environment and society, the initiatives we are taking through our businesses, and the challenges we face.

We believe that the azbil report is an important means for communicating with our many stakeholders. We welcome feedback, questions or concerns from our readers.

Issued: August 2012

Next scheduled release: August 2013
